Numb. 9064.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 4, to Saturday June 8, 1751.

Lisbon, May 10.

THEIR Majesties continue their Residence at Villa Vicioſa, where they divert themselves almoſt daily with Hunting. The Queen Mother has been ſlightly indiſpoſed, but is now perfectly recovered. A few Days ago the youngeſt Infante was ſeized with the Small Pox. On Saturday laſt a Proclamation was publiſhed here, for preventing of Luxury, in which however the Uſe of gilt Coaches and Chariots is allowed, provided they are made in this Kingdom.

Petersbourg, May 24. In Conſequence of the Notification which Count Poſſe made a few Days ago to her Imperial Majeſty of the Death of the late King of Sweden, this Court went into Mourning on Monday laſt, which is to continue for Six Weeks. The Empreſs intending to paſs ſome Time at Peterſhoff, the neceſſary Preparations are making there for her Reception. We have received Advice from the Ukraine, that the Generals who command the Ruſſian Troops in that Country, having been informed that a contagious Diſtemper has lately broke out in ſeveral Places on the Frontiers, which rages with great Violence, and daily carries off Numbers of People, have ordered ſeveral ſtrong Detachments of Troops to march thither, in order to prevent the Spreading of the ſaid Diſtemper, by cutting off all Communication between them and the interior Parts of that Country. On the 17th Inſtant a Courier arrived here from Perſia, by whom we learn, that the new Schach appeared greatly diſpoſed to do all in his Power for promoting the Commerce of his Subjects with thoſe of the European Powers.

Warſaw, May 29. The Command of the Crown Army, vacant by the Deceaſe of the late Count Potocky, devolves on Count Branicky, who will take Poſſeſſion of it accordingly on the Return of the Courier who is gone to Dreſden with the News of Count Potocky's Death; and 'tis ſaid he will be ſucceeded in his Poſt of Lieutenant General by M. Rzewuſky, Palatin of Podolia. Marſhal Count Lowendahl is ſtill in this Kingdom, and to all Appearance his Family Affairs will keep him here till towards the End of the Year. We have received Advice, that the Heyducks have again invaded the Territories of Poland on the Side of the Ukraine, where they have burnt ſeveral Towns and Villages and put the Inhabitants to the Sword; but upon thoſe Heyducks being informed that the Regiment of Podolia and a conſiderable Detachment of Ruſſian Troops were marching againſt them, they had thought proper to retire to the Mountains, from whence 'tis impoſſible to force them.

Rome, May 29. We are informed by Letters from Civita Vecchia, that the Malteſe Gallies were arrived there the 21ſt of this Month, and were immediately joined by thoſe of the Pope, in order to go on a joint Cruize againſt the Corſairs of Barbary. This News gives us great Satisfaction, as the Number of thoſe Corſairs have greatly encreaſed for theſe two Months paſt upon our Coaſts, where they have lately taken ſeveral Veſſels loaden with Corn.

Modena, June 2. The Duke our Sovereign, and all the Court, will leave Reggio To-morrow, and repair to the Caſtle of Rivalta, where 'tis thought they will ſpend great Part of the Summer. A Courier is arrived here from Turin with Advice of the Dutcheſs of Savoy's happy Delivery of a Prince on the 24th paſt. We learn alſo by ſeveral private Letters from Turin, that, in Conformity to the Orders of his Sardinian Majeſty, they were proceeding to make a conſiderable Reduction in the Troops of that Prince, every Battalion in the National Regiments being to be reduced to 550 Men, and the Foreign Regiments in Proportion. They write from Genoa, that the Maſter of a French Ship arrived there from Malta reports, that the Corſairs of Barbary had landed ſome Troops in the Iſland of Pantarale, belonging to Sicily, but that thoſe Troops had met with ſo warm a Reception from the Inhabitants, that they had been obliged to quit the Iſland with great Precipitation, 40 of them having been killed or wounded.

Dreſden, June 5. The Count de Mnizeck, Son-in-Law to our Prime Miniſter Count Bruhl, ſet out on Saturday laſt for Poland, in order to regulate ſome Affairs relating to the Death of Count Potocky, Great General of the Crown Army, by whoſe Death nine or ten Staroſties become vacant in his Majeſty's Diſpoſal.

Berlin, June 8. We have received Advice that the King having finiſhed the reviewing of his Troops in Magdebourg, arrived on Thurſday laſt at the Duke of Brunſwick Wolfenbuttle's at Salzthal, where he propoſed ſtaying two Days, and then to continue his Journey towards Cleves. The Queen ſet out Yeſterday with the whole Court for Schonhauſen for the Summer; and the Queen Mother purpoſes ſhortly to take up her Reſidence at the Caſtle of Monbijou.

Middlebourg, June 13. His Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange continues to enjoy a perfect State of Health, and aſſiſts almoſt daily at the Aſſembly of the States of this Province. Yeſterday his Serene Highneſs made a Tour to Ter Veere, and having dined with the Burgomaſter Verelſt, returned hither in the Evening. The Day of his Departure for the Hague is not yet fixed. On Tueſday Evening laſt arrived in our Road the Huyſtendonck from Ceylon, richly richly laden, on Account of the Chamber of Zealand.

Amſterdam, June 14. We learn from the Texel, that the Lieſde, the Herſtelder, and the Crabbendyk, three Ships belonging to the India Company, arrived there the 10th of this Month; the two firſt from Batavia, on board of one of which was M. Swellingrebel, Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, and the third from Ceylon. Theſe three Ships left the Cape on the 5th of March, in Company with three others, two of which are already arrived in other Ports of theſe Provinces, and the other is daily expected.

Hague, June 15. The States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland are to re-aſſemble To-morrow. We learn by the laſt Poſt from Germany, that Prince Frederick of Heſſe Philipſthall, younger Brother to the Landgrave of that Name, died at Philipſthall on the 30th of laſt Month, in the 22d Year of his Age.

April 19, 1751.
